MIAMI JEWELRY & WATCH SHOW

PALM BEACH SHOW GROUP ANNOUNCES THE LAUNCH OF THE MIAMI JEWELRY & WATCH SHOW

January 8-11, 2026 • Hyatt Regency Miami

Miami, FL (May 6, 2025) – The Palm Beach Show Group proudly expands its distinguished portfolio of events with the debut of the Miami Jewelry & Watch Show, set to take place January 8–11, 2026, at the elegant Hyatt Regency Miami (400 SE 2nd St, Miami, FL 33131).

Featuring more than 100 international exhibitors, this inaugural event will present an extraordinary selection of antique and estate jewelry, timeless vintage collections, rare watches and unique handcrafted modern and contemporary jewelry designs. Set within Miami's desirable Brickell area, the show offers the convenience of nearby access to top-tier hotels, the Brightline and Miami Metromover, valet parking and an onsite parking garage, as well as dining options all within close proximity.

Bringing together an exceptional roster of global dealers, the show promises a dynamic shopping experience for discerning collectors and sophisticated buyers alongside members of the trade. Guests will have access to one-of-a-kind pieces, curated for the South Florida market, known for its vibrant and diverse clientele. Further details surrounding special programming and highlights will be announced in the coming months.

Renowned for its strategic and highly targeted marketing efforts, the Palm Beach Show Group will implement an extensive campaign designed to engage South Florida's most affluent communities, ensuring a strong turnout of qualified buyers and collectors.

"We are launching this show in Miami based on overwhelming exhibitor demand for a high-end estate jewelry and watch event in this market during this time of year," said Scott Diamant, President and CEO of the Palm Beach Show Group. "With the strength of our dealer network and the exceptional buying power in Miami, we recognized a significant opportunity to create something truly remarkable."

The event will foster both dealer-to-dealer transactions and retail sales, featuring a wide array of pieces from vintage, estate, and Art Deco jewelry to contemporary designs, high-end watches, and precious and semi-precious gemstones.

"The enthusiasm from our dealers to be present in Miami during this prime season has been tremendous," added Jaime Kantor, Chief Operating Officer for the Palm Beach Show Group. "We are thrilled to bring a new, world-class event to the vibrant Brickell area of Miami."

Produced and curated by the Palm Beach Show Group, the Miami Jewelry & Watch Show is thoughtfully designed to elevate the experience for dealers, collectors, and buyers alike. The Palm Beach Show Group team remains committed to fostering meaningful connections through engaging environments, innovative marketing strategies, and exceptional service.
